COVER: George Rogers Clark (November 19, 1752 - February 13, 1818) was born near Charlottesville, Virginia. Without a formal education he became a competent surveyor and read widely in history, geography and natural history. He explored in the Ohio country in 1772, served as captain of militia in Dunmore's War and speedily became a leader in the Kentucky settlements. He persuaded Virginia authorities that the best defense of the Kentucky frontier lay in an attack upon Indian and British positions in the country northwest of the Ohio. With meager resources under Virginia authority he gained control of the southern portions of the Old Northwest in 1778 - 79. The highpoint of his military career was the capture of Fort Sackville at Vincennes, February 25, 1779. His hopes of reducing Detroit were frustrated by inadequate support from the seaboard. He took a leading part in the development of Clark's grant and the establishment of Clarksville, the first American settlement in the Northwest Territory. His personal fortunes never recovered from the losses sustained during the Revolution, suggesting that republics can be as ungrateful as princes. He was the victim of a vicious conspiracy headed by James Wilkinson. He was unrivalled as a leader of men, a capable soldier and skilled as a forest diplomat.

THIS ISSUE: The listing of the membership of the Indiana House of Representatives 1851 - 1967, is completed in this issue. Please note the changed location of the Indiana History Workshop as first announced in the preceding number.

MEMBERS OF THE INDIANA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES - 1851-1967

K - Z

In the History Bulletin for September, 1967, lists of elected state administrative officials were published. In November, the Bulletin carried a roster of the Indiana membership in the national House of Representatives. A list of U. S. Senators from Indiana appeared in December. In June, 1968, county census data, 1810-1960 was made available. In August and September the Bulletin called the roll of the upper house of the Indiana General Assembly, 1851-1967. From letters received it would appear that students and teachers of Indiana history, genealogists and reference librarians have found these compilations useful. In January, 1969, members of the Indiana House of Representatives, 1851 - 1967, A - J, were listed. In this issue the House listing, K - Z, is completed. This material was prepared by Mrs. Shirley McCord of the Indiana Historical Bureau staff.

BOOK NOTES

The Nicholas Bardonner Family, 1777-1967. Compiled by Carl E. Bardonner. (Waukegan, Illinois: W. T. H. S. Press, 1968. Pp. 27. Paper, n. p.)

This publication is an expanded revision of earlier Bardonner genealogies.

More Indian Lore. By E. W. Lamb, J. Lamb and L. W. Shultz. (Winona Lake, Indiana: Light and Life Press, 1968. Pp. 271. Illustrations and maps. $4.00.)

E. W. Lamb and L. W. Shultz issued Indian Lore in 1964. This collection is less parochial than the first. It may be ordered from the authors. Mr. and Mrs. Lamb live at Amboy, Indiana, and Mr. Shultz lives at North Manchester.

Myself When Young. By Karl Detzer. (New York: Funk & Wagnalls, 1968. Pp. 248. $4.95.)

Mr. Detzer relives a Fort Wayne boyhood of some sixty years ago. He includes stories heard from the community's elders with his own recollections. He is presently an editor of Reader's Digest. In a prefatory caveat he warns, "This is not history. It is merely an album of remembered characters and a retelling of unforgotten events." But if it is not history, it is the stuff that future social historians will read with interest.

COUNTY MAP SEPARATES

In 1968 the Indiana Historical Society issued a reprint of the county maps from the Indiana Atlas of 1876. These county maps, 17 3/8" x 14 1/8", printed on one side only, are available as separates at the following rates:

40¢ @ plus 50¢ for handling and postage in an order of 1-5

30¢ @ plus 50¢ for handling and postage in an order of 6-19

25¢ @ plus 50¢ for handling and postage in an order of 20-99

20¢ @ plus 50¢ for handling and postage in an order of 100 or more

When maps are purchased at the Society offices, 408 State Library and Historical Building the handling charge is not made. The double-page reprint of the Indianapolis map, 17 3/8" x 28 1/4", is also available at the above rates. Send your order and check to the Indiana Historical Society, 140 North Senate Avenue, Indianapolis 46204.

SPRING WORKSHOP SCHEDULED AT CLIFTY FALLS

The 1969 Indiana History Workshop will be held at the inn at Clifty Falls State Park near Madison, April 24-27. This emphasis on location seems necessary since apparently a number of persons read the announcement indicating the change of location in the January Bulletin and then sent their reservations to Canyon Inn, McCormick's Creek State Park, where the meeting has been held for some years. The change is in no way a criticism of the hospitality supplied at Canyon Inn. The decision to hold the meeting at Clifty was made because new construction there makes better accommodations available. Send your reservations to the Manager, Clifty Falls Inn, Clifty Falls State Park, Madison, Indiana.
